Academic Status

Based on Stanford Achievement Test results, each school and school system is given an academic status:

* Clear status indicates the school or system is meeting state academic requirements.

* Caution means the school or system needs academic improvement.

* Alert 1 or 2 requires the state Department of Education work with the system personnel to bring test scores up to standards.

* Alert 3 indicates the state Department of Education will intervene in the daily operation of a school or system in an attempt to improve academic status.

The chart below shows this school's academic status for the past three years.

Year	Status	% Improvement	Grade
1999-2000	CLEAR		N/A
1998-1999	CLEAR		N/A
1997-1998	CLEAR		N/A

Schools and school systems in Caution or Alert are attempting to improve test scores and reach Clear status. If this school is in Caution or Alert, the grade above indicates their progress.
